PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CIA RETIREMENT ACT

"The Director of Central Intelligence may (in order to achieve or maintain parity with provisions relating to Civil Service Retirement in Subchapter III of Chapter 83 of Title 5, United States Code which have been amended subsequent to the enactment of the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees (50 U.S.C. 403 note)) recommend the adjustment of comparable provisions of the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees, as amended (50 U.S.C. 403 note) by transmitting to Congress the adjustment to be made together with his findings. The adjustment shall have the force and effect of statute at the end of the first period of 60 calendar days of continuous session of Congress after the date on which the transmittal is received unless, between the date of transmittal and the end of the 60-day period either House passes a resolution stating in substance that the House does not favor the adjustment. The Director of Central Intelligence shall have the transmittal delivered to both Houses on the same day and to each House while it is in session. Adjusted provisions shall be printed in the Statutes at Large in the same volume as the public laws and shall be printed in the Federal Register."
